

The Lisbon Treaty Begins, 1 December 2009

It is the 1 December 2009 and the Lisbon Treaty enters into force. A warm welcome to High Representative of the EU for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy/VP of the Commission, Baroness Ashton, a female first in the top EU echelon. Brussels is a flurry of events from all corners on the significance and confusion over implementing the Lisbon Treaty and introducing the Spanish EU Presidency. But what is really happening behind the scenes and rhetoric of speakers on panels?

Below are some previous analyses by ISIS Europe as a prelude to our next edition of the European Security Review (out on 8 December) which will have articles on: the EAS; EU-NATO logistics; EU early warning; an overview of the Swedish Presidency and our regular CSDP & EU mission update.
